We are pleased to inform that following physical document verification of your original documents and submission of requisite fees of the first year, the University is pleased to admit you in the Ph.D. program of the University in the specialization of Clinical Psychology.

Please note the following carefully:

1. As per Ordinance No. SRHU/ORD/65 on 'M.Phil/Ph.D. Regulations' of the University, the Ph.D. program is conducted in regular mode. Accordingly, the Ph.D. scholars are required to be physically available on regular basis in their respective departments for conducting experiments in the labs/undertaking research related work/reviewing literature for the research in the University library/other departmental work, as may be assigned to them by their respective supervisors. This is to enable research scholars to move in the right direction towards their development and growth, enhancing research activities in their respective departments and resulting in meaningful outcomes of research in the form of quality publications and patents.
2. You shall be required to undertake course work for a minimum period of one semester. The course work shall be treated as Pre-Ph.D. preparation and comprises of papers on Research Methodology, Research and Publication Ethics, Quantitative Techniques & Computer Applications and Advances in your respective subject area. It is mandatory to have attendance of 75 % in course work classes, to be eligible for the Ph.D. course work examination. As per the Ph.D. Regulations of the University, you will have to successfully qualify the course work examination before proceeding for research synopsis.

In the event of your being unsuccessful in the course work examination at the first attempt, you shall be given only one more opportunity to appear and pass the examination after due submission of the examination fee for course work.

Handwritten signature and date: 6m sep, 2023

3. Following successful completion of the course work, you are required to prepare your Research Proposal/Research Synopsis within six months from the declaration of the result of the course work examination. Following this, you have to make a presentation of your detailed Research Proposal/Research Synopsis, which shall be evaluated by the Departmental Research Committee (DRC) in presence of external experts. Once the Research Synopsis is formally approved by the DRC, an Enrolment Number will be issued by the University and you will be allowed to proceed further with the Ph.D. research.
4. The tuition fee shall be paid by all the Ph.D. scholars until satisfactory submission of their thesis within the stipulated duration as prescribed by the University from time-to-time. Student will be allowed to continue in each following year only after submission of the requisite fee of the Ph.D. program as stated in the seat allotment letter.
5. At any time in the duration of the Ph.D. program, if any information/document submitted by you is found misleading/false, your admission shall be cancelled by the University.
6. Refund of fees shall be as per the Policy for Refund of Fees of the University circulated through officer order number SRHU/Reg/OO/2022/177 dated 20 October 2022.
7. The candidate is required to intimate Research and Development Cell through email for all communication done with various authorities of the University.
8. Notwithstanding anything stated in this letter, for any unforeseen issues arising and not covered in this letter, or in the event of differences of interpretation, the Vice-Chancellor may take appropriate decision in the matter. The decision of the Vice-Chancellor in this regard shall be final. The University reserves the right to amend the above mentioned guidelines as and when required.
