

Report on World Hepatitis Day

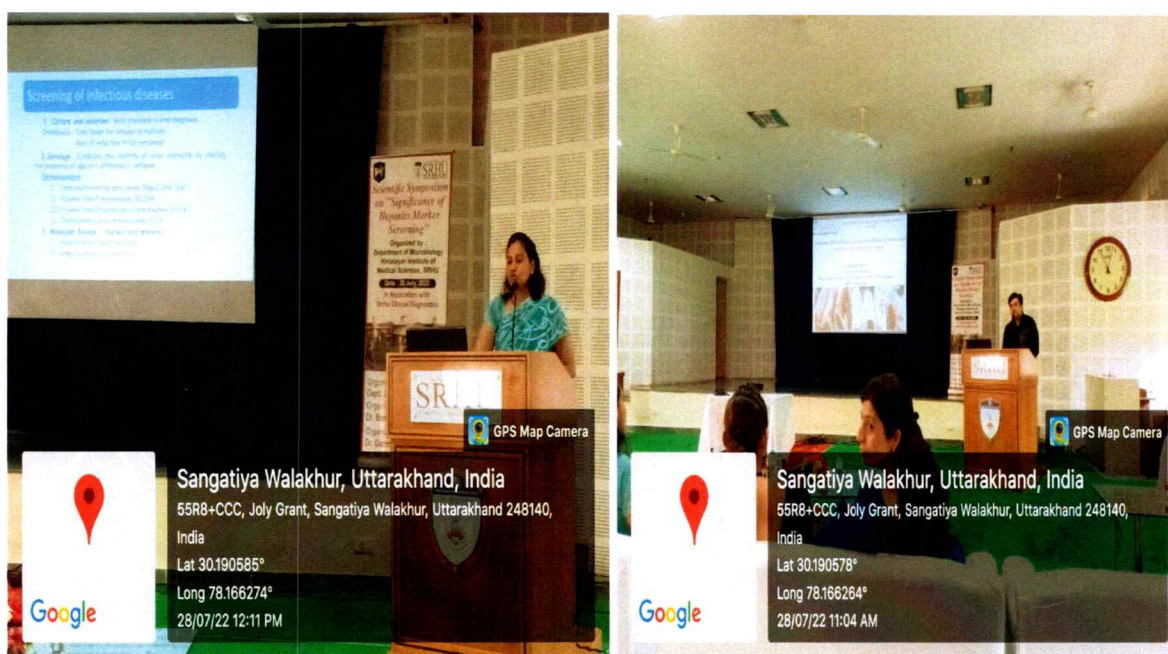

Date:- July 28,2022

Activities:- A scientific symposium on the “Significance of Hepatitis Marker Screening” was organized by the Department of Microbiology at the auditorium of the Himalayan College of Nursing on the occasion of World Hepatitis Day. Experts from the department of microbiology, HIMS deliver talks on significance, and recent advances in development of hepatitis markers for advanced diagnostics.

Place of Event:- Auditorium, Himalayan College of Nursing, SRHU

Participants:- Faculty, staff, and students of various Dept., SRHU

No.of Participants:-86

86 students, faculty and staff members attends a symposium on “Significance of Hepatitis Marker Screening” at Himalayan College of Nursing, where experts talk about the recent advances in hepatitis marker development for diagnostics

