Neonatal Point of Care Ultrasound (NEOPOCUS) Workshop

Date- 28-09-2024

A workshop on Point of Care Ultrasound (POCUS) in Neonates was held on 28th September 2024 in Himalayan Institute of Medical Sciences, led by Dr. Pradeep Suryawanshi, the pioneer of neonatal POCUS in India. The faculty included Dr. Hans Vaish, Dr. Chinmay Chetan, and Dr. Arjun Verma, all recognized experts in the field.

The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Hem Chandra, Director of Medical Services, along with Dr. Vipin Vaish, President of the Uttarakhand Neonatology Society, and Dr. Anil Rawat, Head of the Department of Pediatrics.

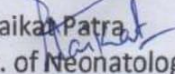

A total of 30 delegates, comprising neonatologists and pediatricians, attended the event. The workshop featured interactive sessions covering the fundamentals and practical applications of POCUS in diagnosing neonatal conditions, including lung, heart, and brain issues.

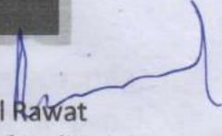

The event received positive feedback, with attendees praising the hands-on training and expert guidance. It was a successful initiative that emphasized the importance of advancing neonatal care through POCUS.
