Facilitator: Dr. Kamli Prakash, HOD, Adult Health Nursing

The Department of Adult Health Nursing, Himalayan College of Nursing in collaboration with Cancer Care and Research Centre, organized a Guest Lecture on the “Cancer Awareness” on 3rd February 2026. The event was conducted under the vision of Dr. Sanchita Pugazhendi, Principal, Himalayan College of Nursing, and the guidance of Dr. Kamli Prakash, Vice Principal and HOD, Adult Health Nursing, Himalayan College of Nursing, SRHU. The resource persons for the session were Dr. Madiwalesh Chebbi, Assistant Professor, Surgical Oncology, CCRC, HIMS and Dr. Mansi Barthwal, Assistant Professor, Radiation Oncology, CCRC, HIMS and Ms. Madhavi Thapliyal, In-charge nurse Day Care Ward, CCRC.

The primary objective of the guest lecture was to generate awareness regarding cancer among the students of Himalayan College of Nursing, SRHU. The programme commenced with a warm welcome address delivered by Mrs. Sandhya V. Chacko, followed by an overview of the distinguished guest speakers. Dr. Madiwalesh Chebbi provided valuable information about the increasing statistics of cancer and its growing burden on society. He explained the common risk factors and causes, including lifestyle habits, environmental exposure, infections, and genetic factors. The lecture also covered the general warning signs and symptoms of cancer, different treatment modalities such as surgery, chemotherapy, radiotherapy, and other advanced therapies for cancer.

Dr. Mansi Barthwal explained the system-wise symptoms of cancer and emphasized early identification of warning signs. She also discussed about prevention of common cancers like cervical and oral cancer through healthy lifestyle practices, avoiding tobacco, regular screening, and vaccination. Ms. Madhavi Thapliyal shared her valuable clinical experience of caring for cancer patients in the day care unit and explained how patients undergo different treatments such as chemotherapy and supportive therapies, and highlighted the common challenges faced by them, including pain, fatigue, anxiety, and treatment-related side effects. She also emphasised the important role nurses play in providing safe care, maintaining patient comfort, offering emotional support, and educating patients and families throughout the treatment process.

185 students were benefited from the lecture. After the lecture, the speakers addressed the doubts of the students, followed by feedback from the students. The Session concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Kamli Prakash, Vice Principal and HOD, Adult Health Nursing, Himalayan College of Nursing, followed by a group photograph with the guest speaker, faculty and students.
