Obstetrics & Gynecology Nursing Department of Himalayan College of Nursing organized a Continuing Nursing Education on September 30, 2025, on the theme “Current Advancement in Nursing Education and Obstetrics & Gynecology Nursing”. It was aimed at enhancing the knowledge and skills of nursing students and staff within the department. The session highlighted recent innovations in nursing education, including simulation-based learning, e-learning, and competency-based teaching approaches designed to improve critical thinking and clinical competencies. It also covered the latest advancements in Obstetrics and Gynaecology nursing, such as updated protocols for managing high-risk pregnancies, modern prenatal and postnatal care practices, minimally invasive gynecological procedures, and the importance of holistic and patient-centered care. Faculty members facilitated interactive activities like case study discussions and skill demonstrations to encourage practical application of these advancements. This focused in-house program emphasized the importance of integrating evidence-based practices and technology in both education and clinical settings, motivating participants to continuously update their professional skills to meet the evolving challenges in healthcare.
