Venue: Department of General Surgery, HIMS, SRHU

Participants: 33 (7 Faculties and 26 Residents)

Detailed Report of the Event

The Department of General Surgery organized a faculty lecture on 12 May 2026 as part of its academic and professional development activities.

The lecture was delivered by Dr. Santosh Kumar Singh, Professor, Department of General Surgery. The topic of the lecture was “Making of a Surgeon.”

The session focused on the professional journey, clinical responsibilities, ethical values, surgical skills, academic commitment, and personal qualities required to become a competent and compassionate surgeon. The speaker shared valuable insights and experiences that motivated young surgeons and trainees toward excellence in surgical practice and patient care.

Faculty members and resident doctors from the Department of Surgery actively attended the lecture. The session was highly informative, interactive, and beneficial for all participants.

The program concluded with an interactive discussion and vote of thanks to the speaker for his valuable contribution to academic learning and surgical education
