Report on Finance Seminar on “West Asia War 2026: Impact on India’s Key Sectors & Pathways to Resilience and Growth” conducted by the Finance Club, SMS 17th April 2026

Venue: KLT – 8, SMS

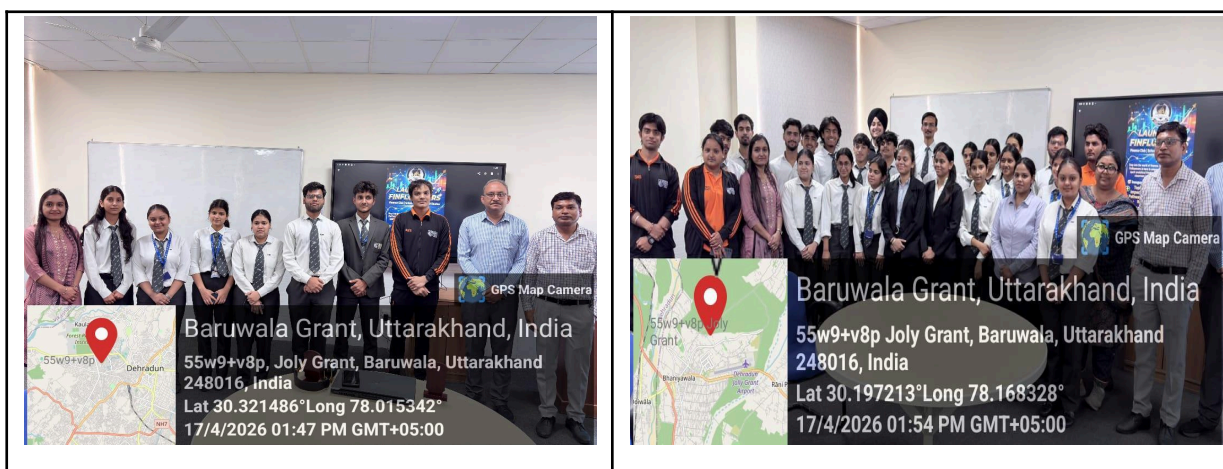

Participants: 39 Students and 9 Faculties

The School of Management Studies (SMS) successfully organised the inaugural event of its finance club, FinFluencers, on 17th April 2026. The event commenced with the official launch of the club, symbolizing a new platform for students to enhance their financial acumen and engage in meaningful academic and industry-oriented discussions. The ceremony also introduced the club’s leadership team and members, highlighting their vision and objectives for fostering financial awareness and analytical thinking among students.

The highlight of the event was the Finance Seminar on the theme, “West Asia War 2026: Impact on India’s Key Sectors & Pathways to Resilience and Growth.” The seminar witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of BBA, B.Com, and MBA programs. Participants presented insightful analyses on diverse aspects of the topic, including the impact on oil prices, trade dynamics, supply chains, and the Indian economy’s strategic response mechanisms. The presentations reflected strong research orientation, critical thinking, and awareness of global economic interdependencies.

The competition element of the seminar added excitement and encouraged excellence among participants. Gracy Kataria, a B.Com III-year student, secured the First Prize for her outstanding presentation. Divyansh Saxena, a BBA I-year student, was awarded the First Runner-Up position, while Falin and Abhinav, also from BBA I-year, jointly secured the Second Runner-Up position.

The event concluded on a gracious note with a vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Ritvik Dubey, Principal, SMS. He appreciated the efforts of the organizing team, participants, and faculty members for making the event a grand success. The inaugural event of FinFluencers thus set a promising beginning for future academic and co-curricular initiatives in the domain of finance.
