Report on Placement Priming Session

Himalayan School of Yoga Sciences, Swami Rama Himalayan University.

Date: October 14, 2023

Venue: Patanjali Auditorium 3, Himalayan School of Yoga Sciences.

On October 14, 2023, the Himalayan School of Yoga Sciences organized a mandatory Placement Priming Session for all final year B.Sc and M.Sc. students. The session aimed to equip students with essential knowledge and skills to enhance their employability in the competitive job market.

Mr. Aayush Sharma, the Director of the Placement Cell, conducted the session, sharing valuable insights into the various job opportunities available across different departments. He emphasized the importance of being well-prepared for interviews and provided practical tips on how to make the interview process safe and effective. His guidance included strategies for presenting oneself confidently, responding to common interview questions, and understanding the expectations of potential employers.

The session encouraged active participation, with students engaging in discussions and asking questions about the job application process and interview techniques. This interactive format allowed students to clarify their doubts and gain personalized advice tailored to their career aspirations.

Overall, the Placement Priming Session successfully informed and motivated students to approach their job search with confidence and preparedness. The faculty expressed gratitude to Mr. Sharma for his insightful presentation and for providing students with the tools necessary for successful career development. The session underscored the commitment of the Himalayan School of Yoga Sciences to support its students in achieving their professional goals.
