COMMUNITY HEALTH OUTREACH CLUB (Public Health, Social Welfare, & Community Outreach Clubs)

1. Introduction

This club serves as a dynamic platform for students to actively engage in SRHU's community health missions. Led by the Department of Community Medicine, it bridges academic learning with clinical service through outreach camps, health screenings, and community diagnosis. Operating across RHTC Kurkawala, UHTC Rishikesh, CHC Doiwala, and village Toli, the club empowers students to make measurable health impacts in underserved regions.

2. Objectives

The objectives of the Club are:

- Promote structured health outreach through SRHU's field practice areas and public health units
- Facilitate early disease detection and referral via mobile camps and household surveys
- Support implementation of national programs (Pulse Polio, MR, POSHAN Abhiyaan, etc.)
- Integrate hands-on service into SRHU's health curricula and outreach calendar
- Strengthen inter-professional collaboration and data-driven decision-making for rural health

3. Club Committee

The Club shall be governed by a committee comprising the following members:

Composition	Roles
Dr. A.K. Srivastava , Professor, HIMS	Chairperson
Dr. Neha Verma, Assistant Professor HIMS	Treasurer
Dr. Vidisha Vallabh, Associate Professor, HIMS	Member Secretary

REPORT

Organized by : Community Health Outreach Club, Swami Rama Himalayan University
Date : 14th November 2023
Venue : Raiwala
Time : 10:00AM onwards

The Community Health Outreach Club of Swami Rama Himalayan University conducted a field visit on 8th June 2024 as part of the ongoing Family Adoption Programme (FAP) for MBBS students of the 2022 batch. The visit aimed to strengthen the connection between medical education and community health by engaging students in direct interaction with local families and allowing them to apply their classroom knowledge in a real-world context.

A total of 64 MBBS students participated in the visit, under the supervision of Dr. Surabhi Mishra (Associate Professor) and junior residents Dr. Vaibhav Rana, Dr. Chirag Joshi, and Dr. Avani Gupta. The students were divided into groups and assigned to families within the local community as part of their ongoing FAP assignments. Each student revisited their designated family to collect updated health information and record findings in their respective logbooks.

During the visit, students engaged in data collection activities that included obtaining information on the family's health status, medical history, lifestyle patterns, and existing health concerns. They also performed basic health check-ups, including measurement of height, weight, and vital signs, thereby gaining hands-on experience in community-based health assessment. The interaction allowed students to understand the socio-economic and environmental factors influencing health and provided an opportunity to apply preventive and promotive health principles.

While the visit was largely successful, certain challenges were noted, including the unavailability of some families during the scheduled visit. To enhance the effectiveness of future visits, better coordination and communication strategies with the community will be implemented.

The Family Adoption Programme continues to serve as a valuable experiential learning component of the MBBS curriculum, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical exposure. It reinforces SRHU's commitment to community-oriented medical education and contributes significantly to developing socially responsible and empathetic healthcare professionals.

REPORT

Organized by : Community Health Outreach Club, Swami Rama Himalayan University
Date : 05th June 2024
Venue : RHTC Gauhri Mafi, Raiwala
Time : 10:00AM onwards

The Community Health Outreach Club of Swami Rama Himalayan University organized a Family Adoption Programme cum Health Camp on 5th June 2024 at Garhi Mayechak, Shyampur, through RHTC Gauhri Mafi, Raiwala, to mark the observance of World Environment Day. The camp was conducted as part of the National Medical Council (NMC)'s Family Adoption Programme (FAP), which aims to bridge the gap between medical education and community health services.

Under the FAP initiative, each medical student is required to adopt three to five families for regular health assessment, follow-up, and health promotion activities. The camp served as an integrated platform for health service delivery, environmental education, and experiential learning for MBBS Batch 2023 students.

During the camp, educational sessions were conducted on the theme of World Environment Day, focusing on waste management and environmental conservation. Faculty members and residents emphasized the connection between environmental health and public well-being, encouraging community participation in sustainable practices. Alongside these sessions, essential healthcare services were provided to rural residents, including general health check-ups, medical consultations, and health education on hygiene and nutrition.

A total of 92 beneficiaries availed medical services during the camp. The event highlighted the vital role of preventive and promotive healthcare in improving rural health outcomes while also instilling environmental awareness among both students and the community. The MBBS students actively engaged in assisting patients, conducting awareness activities, and documenting health data as part of their field training.

Special attention was given to ensuring the safety and well-being of participants. Students returned safely to the campus after the camp, and patients requiring physical assistance were dropped home using university transport facilities. The camp successfully achieved its objectives, demonstrating how the
