To commemorate the Foundation Day of SRHU, The Literary Club enthusiastically organized a Story and Poem Writing Competition on 9th March 2024, centered around the theme “Voices of Change.” The event was designed to inspire students to use literary expression as a means of reflecting on societal challenges and envisioning a better future. Organized under the guidance of Dr. D. S. Gaur and Dr. Sanjoy Das, Coordinators of Literary Club, the competition encouraged participants to submit original compositions in both English and Hindi. Entries explored powerful themes such as environmental stewardship, gender equality, mental health, and cultural resilience.

Students from diverse academic backgrounds participated with great enthusiasm, and the most compelling pieces were awarded certificates and featured in the university newsletter. The event not only honoured the university’s founding ideals but also highlighted the transformative power of storytelling and poetry in shaping thoughtful, socially conscious individuals.
