REPORT

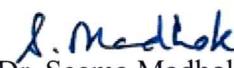

Organized by	: Public Speaking Club, Swami Rama Himalayan University
Date	: 19 th October 2024
Venue	: Adi Kailash Auditorium, Swami Rama Himalayan University
Time	: 02:30PM - 04:30PM

The Public Speaking Club of Swami Rama Himalayan University organized a university-level seminar on “Strategies for Effective Public Speaking” on October 19, 2024, at the Adi Kailash Auditorium. The seminar aimed to help students enhance their oratory abilities by providing practical insights into mastering effective communication. The session was delivered by the distinguished speaker, Dr. Binod Mishra, Professor of English at IIT Roorkee, whose extensive academic and literary contributions enriched the learning experience. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 200 students representing various constituent colleges, along with the presence of esteemed dignitaries and faculty members, making it a highly engaging and impactful gathering.

Dr. Binod Mishra, the keynote speaker, brought with him vast experience as a scholar, author, and orator. Having served across reputed institutions—including BITS Pilani and IIT Roorkee Prof. Mishra has published 25 books on English language and literature, along with two poetry collections. His academic contributions span numerous national and international journals and conferences, complemented by his four well-established NPTEL courses on Soft Skills, Effective Writing, Indian Poetry in English, and Public Speaking. Recognized with several prestigious awards such as the AIMS International Distinguished Service Award and the Excellence in World Poetry Award, Dr. Mishra's presence added immense value to the seminar. His association with various literary bodies and editorial boards further cemented his stature as a leading academician in the field.

The seminar was graced by Dr. Ashok Deorari, Principal, HIMS, who attended as the Chief Guest. In his address, Dr. Deorari emphasized the indispensable role of public speaking in personal and professional growth. He highlighted that effective communication is central to leadership, influence, and career advancement, urging students to overcome their fears and view every speaking opportunity as a step toward confidence and success. Principals and faculty members from various colleges of SRHU also attended the session, reinforcing the university's collective commitment to holistic student development.

Students from multiple colleges including the Himalayan Institute of Medical Sciences, Himalayan College of Nursing, Himalayan School of Science and Technology, Himalayan School of Management Studies, and Himalayan School of Biosciences participated in the seminar, contributing to a vibrant and diverse audience. Their overwhelming presence reflected the university's growing emphasis on communication skills as an essential competency. Prof. Mishra's session was dynamic, interactive, and highly enriching. He discussed strategies to overcome common fears associated with public speaking and offered practical methods to build confidence. Emphasizing non-verbal communication, body language, and vocal modulation, he demonstrated how these elements can influence audience engagement. He also explained techniques for structuring speeches effectively to ensure clarity, coherence, and persuasion. The importance of audience connection, storytelling, and emotional appeal were highlighted as key components of impactful speaking. Students actively participated, asked questions, and engaged in meaningful discussions, making the session lively and hands-on.

In conclusion, the seminar proved to be a resounding success, offering students valuable insights into developing strong communication and presentation skills. The motivational guidance provided by Prof. Mishra equipped attendees with techniques they can apply in academic, professional, and personal contexts. The event marked yet another significant initiative by SRHU to promote holistic development, confidence-building, and effective communication among its students.

REPORT

Organized by	: Public Speaking Club, Swami Rama Himalayan University
Date	: 06 th April 2024
Venue	: Himalayan School of Science and Technology, Swami Rama Himalayan University
Time	: 11:00AM-12:30PM

The Public Speaking Club of Swami Rama Himalayan University successfully organized a seminar titled “Speak to Lead: Strategies for Effective Group Discussions” on April 6, 2024, at the HSST Auditorium from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM. The session aimed to enhance students' competence in participating effectively in group discussions, a skill that plays a vital role in academic performance, personality development, and future professional success. The resource person for the seminar was Dr. Seema Madhok, a renowned expert in communication and personality development, who conducted an engaging and interactive session focusing on essential techniques for effective group participation. During her session, Dr. Madhok emphasized the importance of active listening, logical and structured reasoning, clarity of thought, and articulate expression during group discussions. She highlighted the value of healthy disagreement and respectful communication, guiding students on how to present differing viewpoints without conflict. Additionally, she discussed the crucial role of non-verbal communication such as body posture, eye contact, and confidence in influencing group dynamics and overall performance. The seminar drew participation from students across various constituent colleges of SRHU, reflecting strong interest and enthusiasm for improving communication skills. The event was graced by dignitaries including Dr. Pramod Kumar, Principal, HSST, and Dr. Mohit Verma, Principal, HSMS, who appreciated the initiative and encouraged students to utilize the insights gained in real-life academic and professional scenarios. The seminar concluded with a lively interactive Q&A session, allowing students to clarify doubts and seek guidance directly from the expert. The coordinator of the Public Speaking Club delivered a vote of thanks, acknowledging the contributions of the speaker, dignitaries, and participants. Students found the seminar highly informative, practical, and motivating, marking it as a valuable learning experience that strengthened their confidence and preparedness for future group discussions.
