Model United Nations (MUN)

NOTICE

Date: 15 July 2024

The Centre for Professional & Communication Enrichment is organizing an engaging series of activities for the 1st year students of SRHU as part of the Orientation Programme.

Event Details:

- Event: Introduction to Model United Nations (MUN) Activities
- Date: 2 August – 10 August 2024
- Venue: Respective colleges as per schedule
- Audience: All 1st Year Students of SRHU

The sessions aim to engage students during their orientation, introduce them to the concept and functioning of MUN, and encourage participation in future MUN events to enhance public speaking, leadership, and critical thinking skills.

Co-ordinated & Organised by MUN (C-PACE)

Garima Kapoor,
Chairperson - MUN

Brainstorming and Planning for Orientation

Following the successful execution of Envisage MUN, the team immediately transitioned into strategic discussions on the future course of SRHU MUN activities on July 18th & 26th, 2024. A key outcome of these discussions was the decision to conduct an orientation session for first-year students across various schools at SRHU. The aim was to increase awareness of MUN and the specific vision of SRHU MUN, thereby creating a foundation for future participation.

Orientation Sessions across SRHU Colleges

(Academic Year 2024)

To build momentum and foster participation in future MUN events, a series of orientation sessions were conducted in August 2024. Each session included a comprehensive presentation on the concept of MUN, its importance in developing critical thinking, diplomacy skills, and knowledge of international relations, as well as a focused introduction to SRHU MUN.

Day 1: Himalayan School of Bio Sciences (02/08/2024)

The first orientation session was held at the Himalayan School of Bio Sciences, where students were introduced to the MUN framework through interactive presentations and engaging activities. The students showed keen interest, participating in games presented. A feedback session was conducted to gauge the students' level of interest and understanding.

Day 2: Himalayan School of Yoga Sciences (03/08/2024)

The second session took place at the Himalayan School of Yoga Sciences, where the students were equally enthusiastic. The MUN concept was presented, followed by interactive activities. The session concluded with feedback from the students, which was overwhelmingly positive.

Day 3: Himalayan School of Management Studies – MBA and B.Com Students (05/08/2024)

On the third day, the orientation session took place at the Himalayan School of Management Studies, focusing on engaging MBA and B.Com students. The presentation was structured to demonstrate the relevance of MUN to management students, particularly in developing leadership, decision-making, and negotiation skills. Students were encouraged to tackle real-world issues from a business and economic perspective, fostering a deeper understanding of global policies and international trade.

Day 4: Himalayan School of Science and Technology (06/08/2024)

The fourth orientation session was held at the Himalayan School of Science and Technology. Here, the focus was on demonstrating how technical knowledge can be integrated with diplomatic negotiations, providing a unique perspective on the MUN experience. Students were particularly engaged in the interactive games, which challenged them to apply their knowledge in a diplomatic context. The feedback received highlighted the students' appreciation for the interdisciplinary approach of the session.

Day 5: Himalayan School of Management Studies – BBA Students (07/08/2024)

Returning to the Himalayan School of Management Studies, this session targeted BBA students. The presentation emphasized the importance of understanding global economic policies and their impact on international relations. The interactive games facilitated discussions on economic diplomacy, and the students' feedback reflected their eagerness to explore these concepts further through SRHU MUN.

Day 6: Himalayan School of Pharmaceutical Sciences (08/08/2024)

At the Himalayan School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, the orientation session was tailored to connect the MUN concept with global health diplomacy. The presentation covered how MUN simulations could help future pharmaceutical professionals understand the complexities of international health policies. Feedback from this session indicated a strong interest in continuing the dialogue through future MUN events.

Day 7: Himalayan Institute of Medical Sciences – Paramedical Students (10/08/2024)

The final orientation session was conducted at the Himalayan Institute of Medical Sciences, where paramedical students were introduced to the MUN framework. The presentation focused on the intersection of medical knowledge and international health policy, encouraging students to consider the global implications of their field. Student feedback highlighted their enthusiasm for engaging in more such interdisciplinary discussions.

Debate Session

(14/08/2024)

To maintain the momentum gained from the orientation sessions, a debate was organized on 14 August 2024, inviting students from various colleges at SRHU to participate. The debate focused on current global issues, allowing students to apply their understanding of international relations and diplomatic negotiations. The session not only served as a platform for intellectual exchange but also as a preparatory activity for future MUN participation.

Photography and Reel Competition

(09/08/2024) - (14/08/2024)

To sustain the enthusiasm sparked during the orientation sessions, a Photography and Reel Competition was organized from 09 to 14 August 2024, inviting students from various colleges at SRHU to participate. The competition focused on the theme of "Nature and Infrastructure of the University Campus," encouraging students to capture the unique blend of natural beauty and architectural design at SRHU. Participants showcased their creativity and storytelling skills by highlighting the harmony between the university's green spaces and modern facilities. This event not only provided a platform for artistic expression and visual storytelling but also fostered a sense of community and pride in the university's environment.

Conclusion

The period from May to August 2024 has been a transformative phase for SRHU MUN. Starting with the successful execution of The Envisage MUN event, the team has effectively capitalized on the momentum by conducting extensive orientation sessions across multiple schools at SRHU, followed by an engaging debate session. These efforts have raised awareness about MUN.

As we move forward, the SRHU MUN team remains committed to fostering a culture of intellectual curiosity and global awareness among students.

Conclusion:

The first day of the Envisage MUN Event successfully established a robust foundation for rigorous and insightful debates. Delegates demonstrated a high level of preparedness and engagement, addressing the complex issue of food insecurity and malnutrition with nuanced arguments and data-driven discussions. The Executive Board maintained a structured and conducive environment for productive dialogue. The day's proceedings underscored the commitment of all participants to the MUN's objectives and set a promising tone for the following day.

Day 2: 16th May 2024

Event Timing: 9:18 A.M to 6:00 P.M

Crisis Scenario

1. Crisis Introduction:

- Scenario: France has been accused of contaminating food, resulting in thousands of deaths in Nigeria. Nigeria, supported by an alliance with Japan, Australia, Russia, and India, is on the brink of declaring war. France, however, denies any wrongdoing.

2. Alliance Formation:

- Both the delegates of France and Nigeria were tasked with forming alliances to navigate the crisis.

3. Debate Highlights:

France and Nigeria Delegates: Engaged in a dynamic and intense discussion. Observers noted the exceptional confidence and articulation displayed by both delegates, making the debate a standout moment of the event.

Delegate Participation: Delegates actively participated in the crisis discussion, contributing diverse perspectives and potential solutions.

Resolution Efforts: Throughout the day, delegates worked tirelessly to draft resolutions aimed at de-escalating the crisis and addressing the underlying issues.

Conclusion –

The second day of the event was marked by a heightened sense of urgency and collaboration due to the crisis scenario. Delegates showcased their diplomatic skills, engaging in intense negotiations and strategic alliance formations. The crisis provided a platform for delegates to apply their knowledge and problem-solving abilities in a high-stakes environment. The productive and insightful discussions led to the drafting of comprehensive resolutions aimed at resolving the crisis and preventing future occurrences. The dedication and professionalism of the delegates were evident throughout the day, culminating in a successful conclusion to the Envisage MUN Event.

Delegate Feedback

It has been a wonderful experience. I have gotten to learn a lot from other delegates. The board members were really kind and cooperative.

SRHU MUN was a very good experience for me on a personal scale since it made me realise my potential and what all I can futher learn and do. I would like to thank OC members and EB for such supportive , remarks and suggestions. Loved it! Will look forward to more !

MUN provides a platform to engage with diverse perspectives, build confidence, and cultivate a passion for global affairs. This immersive experience will leaves me with lasting friendships and a broadened worldview. I will be looking forward for next MUN.

Originality and Novelty

The delegates' feedback highlighted the enriching experience provided by the Envisage MUN Event. Their testimonials reflect the event's success in fostering a learning environment that promotes global awareness, confidence building, and the formation of lasting friendships.

Delegate Testimonials Delegate of France

It was my first experience, and it was so informative and great. I would like to extend a vote of thanks to the EB board, OB team, and all delegates. I'm expecting there should be more MUNs within the department and across departments.

Delegate of Nigeria

MUN provides a platform to engage with diverse perspectives, build confidence, and cultivate a passion for global affairs. This immersive experience leaves me with lasting friendships and a broadened worldview.

Delegate of Germany

I will be looking forward to the next MUN. The event was well-organized, and the topics were relevant and challenging, making it a memorable learning experience.

Delegate of Japan

The Envisage MUN Event was a fantastic opportunity to debate pressing global issues and develop public speaking skills. I appreciate the effort put in by the organizing committee and look forward to future events.

Delegate of Russia

Participating in this MUN has been an eye-opening experience. The discussions were insightful, and the collaboration among delegates was inspiring. I hope to see more such events organized.

General Feedback Themes

1. Informative and Educational Experience:

Delegates appreciated the depth and relevance of the topics discussed, noting that the event was highly educational.
