The camp benefited a total of 7 PWDs who were evaluated by a medical team consisting of four government doctors from various specializations. The event was part of an ongoing initiative held every Wednesday from 10 AM to 3 PM at the Coronation Hospital's Orthopaedics Department. During these camps, individuals with disabilities were examined by OPD doctors, and some were referred to higher medical facilities like NAVH, Gandhi Shatabdi, and AIIMS Rishikesh for advanced treatment. In this way, the camp not only helped with Disability assessments, but also connected individuals with resources for their continued care. RDI is supported through transport facilities and human resources for guidance.
