

RURAL DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
GOVERNMENT OF SIKKIM
GANGTOK

Certificate

This is to certify that Swami Rama Himalayan University, Himalayan Institute Hospital Trust, Key Resource Center of National Jal Jeevan Mission visited Sikkim State for imparting training to VWSCs, GP Members, ISAs, JEs and ASHAs & AWWs. 3 days residential training on “Operation and Maintenance of Rural water supply schemes, Source Sustainability & Recharge of spring water sources” conducted in 02 batches (22-23 May & 27-29 May 2024) in which 102 participants were attended the training program.

The training programme were mainly focused on Overview & strategy of Har Ghar Jal scheme and highlighted the importance of rural water supply schemes and water resource management in the present scenario in India, Springshed Management for source sustainability, field exposure visit by groups, concept of integrated water resources management for long term sustainability of sources in hilly areas, work of dhara vikas in Sikkim, roles and responsibilities of all stakeholders in planning, implementation and O&M Roles and responsibilities of Gram Panchayats, issues & challenges in Planning, Implementation, operation and maintenance for Har Ghar Jal and Best practices being adopted in Hilly Areas, Rainwater harvesting (RWH) and revival of water bodies, concept and component of JJM and Operation and Maintenance (Technical, Preventive, and Curative Maintenance), Establishment of O&M systems, Har Ghar Jal certification process and protocol, demonstrated JJM Dashboard, IMIS, IoT-based sensors and WQMIS, Decentralized Management of WS Schemes, water as utility, Convergence and Dovetailing of program, VAP & GPDP and 73rd CAA & How it is relevance to JJM, Convergence & Dovetailing of different programs (15th FC /MNREGA/ SBM/ GPDP/ CAMPA & others), Enhancing community health through water quality Monitoring and surveillance (WQM&S).

Overall, the training programme were very useful and beneficial. I convey my best wishes to the team of resource person from SRHU-HIHT.

Additional Engineer-cum-Project Manager (JJM)
Project Manager/JJM
Rural Development Department
Government of Sikkim,
Gangtok